LOCAL LIFESAVERS SAY THANKS TO THE COMMUNITIES OF POINT LONSDALE AND QUEENSCLIFF

The Point Lonsdale Surf Life Saving Club has now concluded it's Annual Doorknock appeal of the Point Lonsdale and Queenscliff area, having collected a fantastic total of over $ 14 500.

Each and every January local lifesavers, other club members (including many children from the 'Nipper' program), together with family and friends assist the Point Lonsdale Surf Life Saving Club in one of the largest fundraising efforts each year.

Doorknock organisers Ms. Ange Collins and Mrs. Judy Collins have been absolutely thrilled with the overwhelming support offered by the communities of Point Lonsdale and Queenscliff.

"We are extremely grateful to the Point Lonsdale and Queenscliff communities who have again got behind the Surf Life Saving Club and showed their generous support in the service and activities that our Club provides."

"The Point Lonsdale Surf Life Saving Club provides patrolled beaches at both the Point Lonsdale Back Beach and at Queenscliff's Santa Casa Beach and there are considerable expenses in providing patrolled beaches."

"We are most fortunate that people have been able to help the Club financially, especially in difficult financial times when the issue of public liability expenses are ever increasing for all Surf Life Saving Clubs around Australia."

Members of the public who would like to contribute to the annual appeal may still do so by visiting the Club's Office at the Clubrooms on the corner of Ocean and Buckley's Roads Point Lonsdale or by mail – Point Lonsdale SLSC PO Box 120 Point Lonsdale 3225.
