SURF LIFESAVERS SET TO RESUME PATROLS AT THE BACK BEACH, POINT LONSDALE FOR THEIR 60TH YEAR

Not for release prior to 1st November 2006

The Point Lonsdale Surf Life Saving Club advises all beach goers to 'Play it Safe by the Water' and in the interests of beach safety the Club is alerting the community that patrols of the Back Beach, Point Lonsdale resume this month.

The Point Lonsdale Surf Beach, located off Ocean Road Point Lonsdale is home to the Club's main Surf Rescue Base.

Club Captain, Mr. Blake Pilgrim announced that "Saturday 25th November marks the commencement of the 2006 / 2007 Patrol Season for all Victorian Surf and Life Saving Clubs.

It will see Point Lonsdale's Volunteer Surf Lifesavers recommencing their patrols on the Back Beach for the 60th continuous year.

The Club operates patrols at the Back Beach on Saturday afternoons and all day Sundays and Public Holidays from the last weekend in November to Easter Monday".

Ends

Please note that a further Media Release will be issued in approximately three weeks time, for the December / January editions with the full list of dates and times for patrols, by both Volunteer Surf Lifesavers and Professional Lifeguards for the Back Beach Point Lonsdale and for the Santa Casa Beach Queenscliff.
