POINT LONSDALE'S VOLUNTEER SURF LIFE SAVERS JUDGED AS THE BEST ON THE BELLARINE

Volunteer Surf Life Savers from the Point Lonsdale Surf Life Saving Club have been judged as the most efficient, with the recent announcement of the Life Saving Victoria – Patrol Efficiency Competition.

Media Release

Club Secretary, Mr. Matthew Ponsford was delighted to announce that our volunteer surf life savers have demonstrated that they are amongst some of the best in the State in undertaking our number one task – to provide a safer beach and aquatic environment for the community.

"The Club was placed first in the Bellarine District Competition, which comprises Point Lonsdale, Ocean Grove, Barwon Heads / 13th Beach and Bancoora Surf Life Saving Clubs and the Geelong Life Saving Club."

"In the Bellarine District, Point Lonsdale was placed first, Bancoora second, Ocean Grove third, Barwon Heads / 13th Beach fourth and Geelong fifth."

"Independent Life Saving Victoria Assessors act as Judges for the Competition and randomly check each Club three times during the Season. Patrols are checked in a range of areas, ranging from the thorough completion of log books, to rescue techniques, resuscitation proficiency, knowledge of theory components and the correct wearing of uniform".

"Local residents and visitors to the area should feel confident that their volunteer surf life savers are amongst the most qualified and most efficient in the State".
